

Homebound Process

Special School District of St. Louis County

Updated on 7/1/12

OUR MISSION: To collaborate with partner districts' general and special education staff and parents to provide and support highly qualified teachers (for students who are unable to access services in a school setting) by providing a system to gather data, provide training, offer support, and efficiently assign, deliver and report services in a professional and positive manner.

