Opening Doors to Opportunity: Parents & Schools Working Together

The 2011 Fred Saigh Parent Leadership Institute - Sept. 10, Oct. 1, Nov. 5

The Fred Saigh Parent Leadership Institute offers information, training, resources, and skill building specific to the needs of parents of children with disabilities. Training will be held Saturdays from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on Sept. 10, Oct. 1 and Nov. 5, 2011 in the SSD Central Office Board Room. Kathie Snow, nationally known speaker and author of Disability is Natural, will present at the Sept. 10th session.

At least one parent from each St. Louis County school district and each SSD school will be chosen through an application process. All parents are welcome to apply. Parents of children receiving early childhood services and those with children in kindergarten through third grade will be given preference. Transportation and respite care will not be provided, but referrals to resources are available.

Participants in the program will:

- Learn to effectively participate in your child's education and improve the educational climate for all children.
- Learn how to be a part of and conduct productive meetings.
- Learn how to positively interact and collaborate with other parents and school officials.
- Discover new resources and network with other parents, school officials, and community leaders.

Training is provided at no cost; however, participants must:

- Attend each of the three Institute dates
- Attend one Fall meeting of the Special School District Parent Advisory Council (SSD PAC)
- Agree to provide service leadership within their school district and/or community following the Institute
- Identify and develop a project that could benefit your school community
